Interest profile (RIASEC scores)

Your 3-point code

CES C = Conventional E = Enterprising S = Social

As per your 3 point code, your dominant personality type is Conventional, followed by Enterprising and Social. An individual who is of the Conventional type finds comfort in situations that are organised and predictable, and prefer to engage themselves in activities that are routine and repetitive. The adjacent Enterprising type demonstrates a self-driven personality, with a preference for organizing people, objects and resources to create systems and structures for the attainment of goals and targets. Followed by Social type which denotes sensitivity to human needs, nuances of emotions, thinking patterns and other aspects of human behaviour.
